

Fifth grade students will explore the development of the United States through approximately 1850, examining the people, places and events that shaped the nation's early history. The curriculum integrates historical inquiry with a study of Pre-Columbian Florida, European exploration and settlement, the colonization of North America, the American Revolution, the founding of the nation and westward expansion. Students also develop geographic literacy, understanding the relationships between people, places and environments. Economic concepts such as market and international economies are introduced, alongside the foundations and functions of government, civic engagement and the American political system. Additionally, students engage in Holocaust education and study the resilience, contributions and influence of African Americans from the colonial period through westward expansion, helping them draw connections between past events and their lasting impact on the nation's growth.

Mathematics Thinking and Reasoning Standards (MTRs)

The MTRs are built on the following premises:

- Florida's state academic standards for social studies are taught through the lens of the MTRs; the MTRs are embedded throughout every lesson;
- language of the MTRs are expectations for students to use as self-monitoring tools during instruction every day;
- ensures that students are engaged, persevere in tasks, share their thinking, balance conceptual understanding and procedures, assess their solutions and make connections to previous and extended knowledge/learning; and
- standards should not stand alone as a separate focus for instruction, but should be combined purposefully.

English Language Arts (ELA) Expectations (EEs)

- The ELA Expectations are those overarching skills that run through every component of instruction.
- These are skills that students should be using throughout the instruction of Florida's state academic standards for social studies.

For guidance on the implementation of the EEs, please visit ELA B.E.S.T. STANDARDS: ENGLISH LANGUAGE ARTS. To access Mathematics Resources please visit B.E.S.T Mathematics Resources \(fldoe.org\).

English Language Development (ELDs)

- The ELDs are adopted from the World-Class Instruction Design and Assessment Consortium or WIDA.
- The standards represent the social, instructional and academic language that students need to engage with peers, educators and the curriculum in schools.
